JACKIE

Hi, I'm Jackie. I lived with a family for 8 yrs., but due to circumstances beyond my control, the family couldn't take me with them when they moved away. I'm a very goofy Great Dane/Catahoula mix girl who would be a perfect fit for a family without other fur babies. Sorry, I get a little bossy with other dogs. Otherwise I'm perfect!

BEAUTY

Please may I have a family of my own again? Please will you let me dote my affections on you? Please open your heart & home to me. As you can tell I am a very polite 8 yr. old female Pit blend. I have pleasant house manners & live amicably with children & dogs. Oh yes, I am crate trained too, but my preference is to sleep near you on my own cushy bed. Thank you for considering me as a new friend.

CORY

You may not know it, so I will tell you I'm the "Maine" thing around here. All of the staff loves me & know I am destined for a lucky family. I'm a large boy, likely with some Maine Coon in my family cat tree. I'm about 4 yrs. old and quite the people lover. With a few friendly pats I'll turn on my motor to show my appreciation.

LIL BITS

If I were any more INCREDIBLE I'd be twins! One look at me & I'm sure to melt your heart. Aren't my calico patches lovely? I get compliments on them a lot. I came here when my last owner could no longer keep me. We sadly had to part ways. I sure miss having a special family to share my "purrs" & attention. Maybe you need me to love?

CHEWY

Hey there! I'm a very charming one year old Pit mix boy. I was adopted here before, but the family's first doggie didn't want a new roommate, so back I came [sigh]. I receive extra praises on my politeness with the other dogs, kitties & even kids. Plus I'm housetrained & crate trained, making me a better housemate. I sure hope you might be looking for a wonderful boy like me. I'm back, and I'm waiting. Really now...how can you resist this friendly smile?

SAM

Hi, I'm Sam I Am, but Sam for short and I don't eat green eggs or ham. I do like kitty treats & lots of love from anyone who will pay me any attention. I'm a quiet kitty, who enjoys people without being too clingy. I'd be happy to find a warm spot on a windowsill to sleep or watch life go by while you are at work. Do you have room in your heart for a new 2 yr. old male kitty? If so, you should make your way to my current apartment in the kitty wing of the animal shelter. My doorkeepers will show you to my room.

MICKEY

Looking for a polite and good natured roommate to go with your family? Then you should consider ME! I'm a kind girl who has lived respectfully with dogs, cats & children too. The staff here says I show great potential because I get along with everyone I meet & even have good manners on my daily leash walks. I'd sure love a nice big fenced yard to play in & to be part of your daily life. If you have a little space for me by your side, I'll make you glad you adopted me.

SASHA

Just my luck! No one told me it was picture day or I would've gotten up early & put on my best kitty face. Instead I was caught catnapping the morning away. Guess the best I can do now is tell you about myself & hope you'll come see my warm, cuddly nature. I'm a very ladylike female gray tabby with long hair who is 2 yrs young. I love being brushed, petted and, it's true, I love catnaps. Will you nap with me?

FLASH

I could be out of here in a FLASH if you will adopt me. I'm smart as a whip, super friendly & a great companion for an adult family. I'm a little too much for small children, and I really don't want to knock anyone down. My chart says I'm housebroken, 6 yrs. old & neutered. That makes me pretty darn perfect to start a new life in a happy active home. What do you think? How about you add a Flash of joy to your life?

LUKE

Hi - Luke here. I'm the family spokesman for my brother, Bo, and I. We're two incredible "All American" boys, but we need some patient reassurance to help us gain confidence. We really hope to stick together, like we have been since birth. Take us to obedience classes & gently let us warm up, you'll have two loyal boys forever.

JIMMY

Aren't I a good-looking boy with my all white fur & mesmerizing eyes? I've lived with a family my whole life until recently. Now I need a new family to call my own. I'm a pretty social boy who can't turn away a good head scratch or a nice pat. If you want a dignified kitty with a princely air, come straight to the kitty wing of this fine establishment & ask to see Jimmy. I'm the one with snow white fur & impish look.

SNOOPY

Got love? I'll soak up some. Got home? I'd love one. Got ball? I'll fetch 'em. Got fun? I'll join you. The staff here will probably tell you anyway, so I might as well admit I need a little work on my manners. At one year old I'm pretty energetic & need to find some stability in a new home. They do tell me I'm as sweet as they come and I really want to please my people. If you will be my people, I will be thrilled to go home with you today.

SNICKERS

Whoa there! Are you looking at me? Well then you should see me in person. I'm a 5 yr. old gentle, calm Pitbull mix with a desire to please. I've been neutered & have some especially nice patterns on my fur coat to give me a regal appearance. If you have a large fenced yard & desire a new companion to share your day-to-day activities, then stop in & say hello. I really, really want to be part of your home, because I'm lost without you.

JACKSON

What's up? My ears for a start. Well, maybe just one ear. I'm a one year old ball of energy who needs an active home familiar with Pitbulls. I'm a good boy, but need guidelines to become awesome. Since I'm so smart, I'll learn quickly and make you very happy you picked me out of the group.

THUMBELINA

How many ways can I fill my days waiting for my fur-ever family? I think I've tried everything. All I long for is someone to call my very own, who will let me spend my life being their companion. I'm such a pleasant 5 year old girl, I know there MUST be a family for me to adore. Oh yes, one more "little" thing, I'm called a perma-kitten because I'm forever tiny, just like a Kitty named Thumbelina should be.

SKITTLES

I'm not just another black & white cat! I am WAY COOL! I can purr, frolic, kiss, jump, play, purr, chase, run, purr, snuggle, purr, and even talk. Did I mention I'm fixed AND I've got neat markings too? If you ask me, I'm better than any cat in here. Of course, I might be a tad biased.

ANNA

If you look up "loyal" in the dictionary, you'll see my face smiling back at you. I'm a lovely one yr. old spayed Shepherd mix who is ready to do my tail wiggle dance right into your life. Do you have the gumption to work with a diamond in the "ruff"? Well, I'm your girl. And don't let my shy demeanor put you off, as soon as I get to know you a little, we'll be besties forever. Maybe we could go to obedience classes & you can teach me all the ropes? So remember, it's Anna, rhymes with banana, and it ends with a happy forever.

WALTER

Hey there! Glad to meet you. I'm one heck of a good spirited dog. I'm a 2 yr. old Shar Pei/Pitbull mix, not to mention a really, really nice boy. Are you an active person or family who needs a playtime pal to join in with fun family activities? Then you can count on me to take part with a great big smile & my tail wagging. Invite me home today, but only if you are interested in long-term fun, positive relationship building moments, and a gentle giant to bless your life.

BELLE

Are you looking for the Belle of the Ball? Look no further, because here I am! Even though I'm a little reserved at introductions, I will bring out my dancing shoes once we get to know each other & be the best partner you've ever had. I'm a 6 1/2 yr. old brindle Pit mix who still has a lot of hip hop & bee bop in my paws. Let's take a spin around the dance floor of life.

Pets take commitment. Please consider your lifestyle, the size of your house and yard, plus the cost of care before adopting any animal. A happy pet is a healthy, well trained & loved pet. Please ask the professionals at these facilities for recommendations to meet your individual and family needs for a successful cat or dog adoption. THANK YOU for thinking "adoption" when considering the addition of a pet to your family.

DAISEY

Tons of love is shining from my smiling face. I've been told I'm a 6 1/2 yr. old Pit mix. While I'm a little shy initially, I am also one happy-go-lucky girl who needs a new home to call my own. If you want to wake up to this beautiful face of mine every day, you gotta make sure you get here. It would be a shame if you missed out on a lifetime of knowing me! Got love to share? Then dawg-gone-it, come by today!
