Commissions / Payments / Credit

Agency commission of 15% off general rate to recognized agencies. Local rates are not commissionable. Courier Publishing Co. does not pay placement fees.

Payment is due within 30 days of the billing date indicated on the publisher's statement. If payment is not so made, a late charge of 1.5% per month shall be assessed on the unpaid balance. In addition to the late charge, the publisher may deny service or terminate any advertising agreement with the advertiser and seek any other remedies permitted by law. Advertiser agrees to indemnify the publisher for all expenses incurred in connection with collection of amounts payable such as court costs and attorney fees.

In order to establish an account, a completed credit application is required. Payment in advance of publication will be required until the credit application is approved.

General Policy

A.) Advertising is accepted with the understanding that the terms, conditions, and charges specified herein are acceptable to the advertiser, and that no contrary oral or written agreement shall be binding on publisher.

B.) The publisher assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors, omission of copy, omission of the total ad or incorrect classification. Liability for errors or omissions shall not exceed the cost to the advertiser(s) of the portion of space occupied by such error. Claims for adjustment of the cost of the ad must be made within 10 days of publication. Credit is allowed for first insertion only.

C.) Advertiser will be held liable for damages or any court judgment for invasion of privacy, libel, copyright violation of trademark or patent infringement contained in any advertisement which appears in the Daily Courier, or any of its sections, Country Weekly or WeeksWorth on advertiser's behalf. Advertiser's liability shall include newspaper's defense costs should any legal action be brought as a result of any such action resulting from a published advertisement.

D.) Publisher reserves the right to edit or reject advertising copy or cancel any advertisement. All advertising is accepted subject to approval of publisher and must conform to the general standards of advertising acceptance.

E.) Position requests will be given every consideration but are not guaranteed. An advertiser's request for position is not a condition of acceptance nor basis for an adjustment.

Guaranteed Position: If an ad is at least 90 column inches, a position request can often be guaranteed with an additional charge of 25% of the cost of the ad. Some positions are not available.

F.) Publisher reserves the right to insert the word "Advertisement" above any advertisement and to insert a line rule (border) if necessary.

G.) Publisher reserves the right to amend the terms, conditions, rates, etc., specified in contracts upon 30 days notice, and if revision is not acceptable to the advertiser, the advertiser has the right to terminate contracts upon date of change without penalty.

H.) Acceptance for publication is contingent upon space being available and whether or not advertising is received by deadline. Advertising copy is not considered in on time unless all components are received by deadline.

I.) No advertising space will be sold by the newspaper(s) for the purpose of resale.

J.) Political advertising, advertising on public policy questions and controversial issues will be prepaid. Those ads must carry the name and address of person(s) or organization(s) responsible for the advertisement.

K.) All advertising copy which represents the creative effort of the publisher, the use of creativity, illustrations, photographs, labor, or material furnished by the publisher shall be and remain the property of the publisher, including all rights of copyright herein. Advertiser understands and agrees that photographic and other reproductions, in whole or in part, of any such advertising copy for use in any other medium cannot be authorized by advertiser without the express written consent of the publisher.

L.) Incorrect rates on insertion orders which do not correspond to the rate card will be regarded as clerical errors and advertisements will be published and charged at the applicable rate.

M.) No advertising will be deemed to have been accepted by the publisher until it has in fact been published.

N.) The publisher will not be responsible for duplication of illustrations in competitive ads. The publisher is not responsible for poor reproduction if material submitted is not suitable for offset reproduction.
